

Rural Water WEBINAR

Wednesday, July 14, 2010

2:00 pm Central

ARSENIC REDUCTION THROUGH WELL MANAGEMENT

Presenters

Mike Nickolaus & James Roberts

Mike Nickolaus is the Special Projects Director for the Ground Water Protection Council. A 1979 graduate of Indiana University, Mike is a Professional Geologist with more than 30 years of geologic experience.

James W. (Jim) Roberts has over 23 years of professional experience working as a geologist in the groundwater, environmental and petroleum industries. He is a Hydrogeologist and Vice President of STR, Inc. in Oklahoma City, Okla., where Mr. Roberts is highly regarded and recognized for his expertise and knowledge of clastic bedrock aquifers

ONLY
$45

Registrants will receive:

- ◆ Copy of Report
- ◆ Feasibility Template
- ◆ Case Studies Showing Savings of
1 to 4 Million Dollars for Utilities!

REGISTER Online

www.nrwa.org/Webinars/event.htm

Presented by

State & National Rural Water Associations

and the

Ground Water Protection Council